The below terms and conditions apply to all applicants for the Distance Learning Global Citizen Scholarship:

1. Schiller International University reserves the right to change scholarship offerings without notice at any time.
2. Essays and documents submitted must be in English, with minimal spelling or grammatical errors and submitted with the application, unless otherwise noted.
3. Scholarship applications will not be considered without the required documents.
4. Eligibility for the Distance Learning Global Citizen Scholarship is obtained through satisfactorily submitting an application for admission to Schiller International University along with the additional requested documentation; it is ultimately awarded at the Admissions Committee's discretion.
5. Essays submitted for the Distance Learning Global Citizen Scholarship must be the sole work of the applicant and should not be plagiarized or sourced from any AI-generated content. Essays identified as being generated with AI tools will result in disqualification from scholarship consideration.
6. The Distance Learning Global Citizen Scholarship is valid for the first academic year's fees (for Bachelor programs) or the total tuition (for Master programs). This scholarship is not compatible with any other scholarship offered by Schiller International University.
7. Bachelor students may apply to a merit-based scholarship towards the tuition fees for their second academic year onwards.
8. Students who withdraw from the University will automatically lose all scholarship eligibility.
9. Students who fail to keep up with their scheduled tuition payments, as agreed to in their Enrollment Agreement, would result in possible loss of their scholarship. The Campus Director will maintain final authority on this issue.
10. Scholarships are limited, and Schiller International University reserves the right to suspend or to terminate any and all University sponsored scholarships at anytime.
11. Schiller International University is not responsible for notifying a student when they have regained eligibility.
12. This scholarship is only available for Distance Learning studies and does not include Hybrid programs.

Detailed information about scholarships is available on the Schiller website: <https://www.schiller.edu/admissions/scholarships/>

By checking this box, I confirm that I have read and understood the terms and conditions outlined above. I acknowledge that the Distance Learning Global Citizen Scholarship requires the submission of a supporting essay, as detailed above, to be included with my application to the specified program.
